And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.
BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Dr. Phillip W. Hunter (Chair) attended Faith Evangelistic Christian Bible College where he received an Bachelor of Sacred Ministry. He graduated both a Master of Ministry and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Trinity Theological Seminary. He also attended Bethany Divinity College and Seminary and granted with a Doctrine of Philosophy in Christian Counseling degree, and a Doctor of Theology degree. Dr. Hunter has spent over 30 years in pastoral ministries. During these years he has been pastor at The Community Baptist Church in Owensboro, Kentucky.

STUDYING ON TRACKS

Bethany has developed a unique Three-Track curriculum of study. Students are not required to take all of their courses from one track; however, the concentration must come from only one.

BIBLE PROPER

The Word of God is quicker and sharper than any two-edged sword. Consequently, the pastor, minister, missionary, evangelist or Christian counselor should have a full knowledge of the Scriptures and an ability to communicate them. The study of Bible related subjects allow students to acquire knowledge that supports the Scriptures, thus helping them arrive at a clearer understanding of the Word of God.

THEOLOGY

Every student of the Bible needs to know how to systematically arrange the Scripture so that a good knowledge of the full teaching of God’s Word on any subject is attainable. The study of Theology presents the student with theological methodology, content, and interrelationship of individual doctrines to achieve this knowledge.
